The Breakaway Trip blew me away, and Alex really enjoyed all of our time away. I certainly felt like "I was on cloud 9, with these getaways". For nearly twenty years, Alex has not been very well, and this is the first time we can get away together and not to worry. Alex has certainly changed from all of our Respite Breakaways and he has not travelled on a plane since he was fifteen, it has made a lot of difference to him mentally and physically. Team Health have helped myself and Alex with so much support and care for quite awhile, a big thank you to everyone.
