Psychosocial Support Program Remote

Supporting your mental health journey

Got Some Worries?

We can all have worries sometimes. It can feel like worries can take our strength away and can make us stress or feel sad.

Yarn With Us

Yarning with someone about our worries can make us feel supported and strong. Sit down with us to set some goals, we can help you achieve them. You tell us what makes you strong, and we'll make a plan to make you feel strong.

Social and Emotional Wellbeing (SEWB) based Group Activities

Our SEWB based group activities offer a culturally safe space to connect, heal and thrive. Our groups are designed to support and strengthen all aspects of your wellbeing.

Whether it's through yarning circles, cultural activities, art, or time spent on Country, our SEWB based groups provide space to grow stronger - together.

Eligibility & Referrals

Our Psychosocial Support Program, funded by the NT PHN, assists all people between the ages of 16 and 64, who have a diagnosed mental illness or who are experiencing mental health concerns. We proudly serve 10 communities across the Top End, ensuring that help is available to everyone, including those not funded through the NDIS

We accept referrals from all sources, including self-referral.
